

SECRETARY SPEAKER SERIES

In celebration of our first annual California State Parks Week ...

The Power of Partnerships:

How California State Parks & Community Groups are Coming Together to Improve Outdoor Access

JUNE 15, 2022 | 12:30-1:30 PM

REGISTER VIA ZOOM

Join Secretary Wade Crowfoot and Deputy Secretary for Access Katherine Toy in a conversation with State Parks Director Armando Quintero and park leaders across California who are working together to expand and improve park use for all residents.

Innovative partnerships have blossomed across our state and are getting more people into parks for the first time, improving what visitors learn once they arrive, and ensuring their experience can be transformational. Join us as we explore how to support and evolve these unique partnerships to fulfill the promise of our State Parks for all Californians.
